

ATCSI is hiring TERPS Specialists for work in Langley Air Force Base in Hampton Virginia.

Job Description: The contractor shall make aeronautical information recommendations to the government on behalf of USAFCENT, based on aviation procedures, and needs of the USAF within the USCENTCOM AOR. Applies valid Federal Aviation Administration, North Atlantic Treaty Organization Standard Agreement (NATO STANAG) for Instrument Approach and Departure Procedures (AATCP-1) and ICAO, PANS-OPS criteria in order to evaluate procedures developed from host nation's instrument procedures development offices based on approved aeronautical information. Provides guidance and review on assigned projects from conception through implementation to ensure the accuracy and validity of the procedure.